

Pit Stop Diner is a member of the Super Kitchen Project which aims to provide people and communities with the chance to share a low cost, home cooked meal. Their motto is "just come and eat with us."

We believe that eating together, being sociable whilst using good surplus food can have massive effects on our wellbeing and the wellbeing of communities.

The food was provided by FareShare Food Network who distribute supermarket surplus, reducing the amount of food that goes to land fill.